Nottingham's 20:20 vision: Useful Links

Below you will find links to some useful websites that tell you more about 20mph speed limits, their use in other UK cities and their potential benefits.

The Department for Transport (DfT) 'Interim Evaluation of the Implementation of 20mph Speed Limits in Portsmouth' published September 2012 available on the DfT website www.dft.gov.uk

RoSPA's (The Royal Society for the Prevention of Accidents) factsheet on 20mph speed limits and zones http://www.rospa.com/roadsafety/adviceandinformation/highway/20-mph-zones.aspx

Monash University Accident Research Centre: The impact of lowered speed limits in urban and metropolitan areas http://www.monash.edu.au/miri/research/reports/muarc276.html

Birmingham City Council 20mph http://www.birmingham.gov.uk/20mph

Bristol City Council 20mph http://www.bristol.gov.uk/page/transport-and-streets/20-mph-rollout

City of York Council 20mph zones http://www.york20mph.org/

Liverpool City Council 20mph proposals http://liverpool.gov.uk/parking-travel-and-roads/road-safety/20mph-speed-limit-proposal/about-the-20mph-scheme/

20mph@nottinghamcity.gov.uk

Newcastle City Council 20mph proposals https://www.newcastle.gov.uk/news-story/drop-accidents-city-streets

Sheffield City Council 20mph speed limits https://www.sheffield.gov.uk/roads/works/schemes/new-20-mph-speed-limits.html

20's Plenty for Us
http://www.20splentyforus.org.uk/

Royal Holloway University of London - Traffic at 30 mph is too fast for children's visual abilities http://www.rhul.ac.uk/aboutus/newsandevents/news/newsarticles/speedchildren.aspx