Local List Proposal

Description

Former lace curtain factory. Mid 19th Century. On the first edition OS map it is larger than today as demonstrated by the truncation at the left gable. 2-3 storey brick-built with stone details including string courses, lintels, coped gables and kneelers. There is a mansard roof in the eastern part of the building with a north-lit loft. There is the base of a chimney to the rear.
