Assessment against Local Criteria

1. Age - Victorian 2. Attractive corner pub with elements of Home Ales style 3. Built as a Beer House and redesigned to meet Home Ales Brewery style in the Interwar period

Reason for Designation

As a good example of a Victorian corner public house that has historical evidence of it's development from a Beer House to a public house of one of the most important local breweries

Local List Proposal

Description

Former Duke of Newcastle Public House. A Beer House is recorded in Directories on the site from the 1870s although the current building was not built until the 1880s or 1890s. The Duke of Newcastle was made into a Home Ales pub in the 1920s/1930s with the edition of faience details and lamp as well as new windows.
