Local List Proposal

Description

Former lace factory. Suffered fire in 2016 and in poor condition. Also known as the White House. Built before the 1st Edition OS map. Of high townscape value sitting on the skyline above the Forest Fields. Unclear whether the Birkin Family of Lace Makers built the factory or whether they took over the factory as part of the extension to their main works on Stanley Road (HA618). It was once one works with the factory to the east (HA619). Includes the historic buildings within the yard of the factory.
