Description

It has a central doorway with windows on either side and chimneys on the end gable walls. This cottage had (SC); Parlour, Kitchen, Back Kitchen, Scullery and three bedrooms. However in 1863 it was two cottages, presumably with one and two bedrooms. By 1891 the two parts of the cottage had been united.

Wollaton West HA628

Additional Description:

The Eastern cottage was ocupied by the Walker family and the other part by Sarah Woodward (57), the widow of the former publican of The Admiral Rodney, her 8 year old grandaughter and her former domestic servant aged 67. They presumably managed with the one bedroom. Next door was John Walker (57) a woodman and his family comprising seven people in all, his wife (a laundress), three children (one a miner), his widowed father-in-law (79) and sister in law (a milliner and dressmaker). Despite the cramped conditions with four incomes they must have been fairly well off. In fact the Walker family had lived on this part of Trowell Road since at least 1841 when William Walker (70) of “independent means” lived with his wife Ann (50). He had died by 1848 but Ann (67) “ annuitant” remains here in 1851 and aged 75 in 1861.
